DEPARTMENT OF KAUMARBHRITYA (BALA-ROGA)

INTRODUCTION:

The Department of Kaumarbhritya is dedicated to the holistic health and well-being of children, from newborns to adolescents, based on classical Ayurvedic principles. It plays a crucial role in equipping students with knowledge and skills related to child development, Neonatal and Pediatric care, Immunization (Suvarnaprashana), Nutrition, and disease management.

The department focuses on promoting preventive and curative healthcare for children through traditional and modern Ayurvedic practices. With a child-friendly OPD, IPD, and Panchakarma setup, the department ensures hands-on clinical training for undergraduate students. Emphasis is given to common childhood disorders such as jwara (fever), kasa (cough), shwasa (asthma), grahani (digestive disorders), and developmental issues like balashosha and learning disabilities.

Students receive training in Ayurvedic diagnosis, chikitsa sutra (treatment protocols), dietetics, and formulation preparation for pediatric care, along with exposure to real-time case studies and practical demonstrations.

Vision

- 🚩 To become a center of excellence in Ayurvedic pediatric education, treatment, and research, aiming at nurturing healthy future generations.
