NAVRATRI DAY CELEBRATION-2025

DATE: 30TH SEPTEMBER 2025.

TIME: 09:00 TO 02:00

VENUE: S.S AGRAWAL COLLEGE CAMPUS, NAVSARI.

On 30TH September 2025, The Navratri celebration was organized in our college with great enthusiasm and devotion. The event aimed to celebrate the spirit of Indian culture and the divine feminine power of goddess Durga.

The celebration began with the traditional lighting of the lamp and invocation of Goddess Durga by our respected Principal, faculty members, and student representatives. This was followed by a brief address highlighting the significance of Navratri and the importance of devotion, discipline, and positive energy in our lives. A special Mataji Aarti was performed with devotion and reverence. The atmosphere became divine as students and faculty gathered together to sing the Aarti with lit diyas and joined hands in prayer to seek the blessings of Goddess Durga. The fragrance of incense and the rhythmic claps created a spiritual ambiance filled with positivity and faith.

Following the Aarti, Prasad was distributed among all students, faculty members, and guests. The Prasad symbolized the blessings of the Goddess and the spirit of sharing and togetherness. Everyone partook in the Prasad with gratitude. The Aarti and Prasad ceremony added a sacred touch to the day, reminding everyone of the deeper spiritual essence behind the festival of Navratri.

Students and faculties participated in traditional Garba, dressed in vibrant ethnic attire that reflected the culture richness of the festival. The beats of the dhol and folk music added energy and excitement to the celebration. Students and faculty showcased their creativity, coordination, and enthusiasm through their performances.

Various competitions such as best traditional dress, best action garba performance were organized and winners were awarded prizes. Faculty and students together enjoyed the showcasing unity and joy.

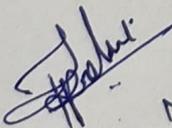

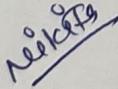

The main attraction of the day was the Garba and Dandiya Raas, where students dressed in vibrant traditional attire — chaniya cholis and kediyus — danced gracefully to rhythmic folk music. The Navratri Day celebration not only spread joy and devotion but also strengthened the bond of unity and respect for Indian traditions within the college community. It was truly a memorable day filled with music, colors, devotion, and togetherness.

The celebration not only provided a refreshing break from academics but also strengthened the bond among students, encouraged teamwork, and promoted respect for Indian values. It was a memorable and spiritually uplifting occasion that filled everyone's hearts with happiness, devotion, and festive enthusiasm.

Conclusion: The Navratri Day celebration in our college was a beautiful blend of culture, devotion, and joy. The event brought students and faculty together to honour Goddess Durga and celebrate the rich traditions of India. Through Garba, Dandiya, Aarti, and Prasad distribution, everyone experienced the true spirit of unity, positivity, and cultural pride.
